

In the name of God Amen. I William Jukes of the Parish of Dinton in the County of Wilts being at this time of sound mind, memory, and understanding (Praised be Almighty God for the same) Do publish and declare this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following (that is to say) I give and bequeath to my present Wife Amelia All those two leasehold Cottages situate near the Pound in the Parish of Dinton in the County of Wilts aforesaid and now in the occupation of John Barnes and John Lane for and during the term of her natural life ^ or second marriage And it is my will and desire that after my Wife Amelia's Death or second marriage The Cottages aforesaid shall come into the possession of my Son Frederick Jukes, But in case my Son Frederick should die before the decease of my said Wife or before her second marriage (leaving no Issue) Then the said Cottages shall come to my Daughter Jane Wife of William Bugg Miller, in the Parish of Dinton aforesaid And it is hereby further provided that my younger Children shall have a right of occupation in the said Cottages untill they have arrived at the age of twenty one years. But in Case of either of them marrying before they are twenty one years of age Then such Child so marrying shall no longer have a right of occupation therein And it is my further will and desire that as soon as convenient after my Decease all my other effects (save and except such part of my Household goods my Executors shall think proper to keep for the use of my present Wife for her life or untill her second marriage which goods at her decease or second marriage are to be sold and devided the same as the other effects) shall be sold and the money arising therefrom be placed in Government security untill my youngest Child shall have arrived at the age of Twenty one Years The Interest whereof till such time shall be applied to the maintainance of such of my Children as shall be under the age of Twenty one years and then be equally devided amongst them the undermentioned (Namely) Jane the wife of William Bugg, Frederick Jukes, Sarah Jukes, Eliza Jukes and Samuel Jukes. And it is my desire that my son Nicholas now Apprenticed to Mr Meatyard, Butcher of Wilton in this County should be found in Clothes and washing during his Apprenticeship by my son George Jukes of Wilton aforesaid in conformity with an agreement signed by the said George Jukes and annexed to this my Will But my said son Nicholas shall not have any share in the money when devided in consequence of having money advanced for his Apprenticeship And in consideration of my son George having received during my life his share of my property He shall have no claim to any thing arising from the said effects And lastly I hereby appoint nominate and constitute Mr Walter Bailey Yeoman and Mr William Barnes Builder both of the Parish of Dinton aforesaid to be my executors, To whom in trust I give all and singular my real and personal Estate, Goods, Chattels and other effects whatsoever and wheresoever to be by them distributed and disposed of as hereinbefore mentioned according to the true intent and meaning thereof In witness whereof I the said William Jukes the testator have hereunto set my hand and seal this Eleventh Day of March in the Year of our Lord One thousand Eight Hundred and Thirty Six
